FATAL SHOOTING
OCCURS IN CITY
EARLY SUNDAYJACK SLIGH IS KILLED AND FRANCIS KYLE IS IN COUNTY HOSPITAL

The outcome of trouble which started in the Oliver James VFW Post 459, was climaxed Sunday morning in the murder of Jack Sligh, Greencastle colored man and the wounding of Francis Kyle by Sligh before he met his death in a shot gun blast. The shooting took place at the intersection of Apple and Illinois streets, shortly before two a. m.

Sligh, police said, had threatened to kill Kyle at the VFW Post rooms on the west side of the square and when Kyle took his wife, formerly Charlotte Baynard, to her parents' home at the above street intersection, Sligh was waiting for them in a yard across the street. Police also reported that when Sligh approached the Kyle automobile, he was told that the trouble had been settled and no more was needed, but Sligh informed Kyle that he was going to kill him and began firing an automatic .32 caliber pistol. One bullet hit Kyle in the leg, one went into the side of the car and another one entered the opposite side of the car. In the meantime Kyle's wife had gotten down on the floor of the back of the car, and handed her husband the shot gun shell after he had reached back for the gun. Kyle fired only the one shot, which struck Sligh in the chest, tearing a great hole in his body. Despite the mortal wound, he was able to walk behind the car and to the opposite side before he fell. Apparently he died instantly.

Homer Sands, Putnam county coroner, investigated the shooting as did the city police.

Kyle was sent to the Putnam county hospital where it was said he suffered from a .32 caliber pistol shot in the leg. He was not badly wounded.

Sligh's body was sent to the Rector Funeral Home where it was prepared for burial.

Funeral services for Jack Sligh will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Rector Funeral Home. Interment will be in Forest Hill cemetery.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Alice Morgan and sister, Mrs. Amanda Walton, Terre Haute, and other relatives.

Sligh, who was born in North Carolina, was a veteran of World War I.

Friends may call at the funeral home.

Before the shooting occurred, Raymond Churchill and Hubert Scott had some trouble at the VFW hall. Sligh was asked to help prevent it, by Kyle. It was said by several who attended the party at the VFW hall that Sligh made the remark there that "I'm going to kill him."

Coroner Sands stated Monday that he wanted to talk with some of the other witnesses of the pre-shooting trouble. Prosecutor William McClellan questioned witnesses Sunday and both he and Coroner Sands indicated that a verdict of "justifiable homicide" most likely will be returned.

At 11:15 o'clock Monday morning, Judge John H. Allee telephoned The Daily Banner that he was ordering the Putnam county grand jury to be called into session to investigate the shooting Friday at 10 a. m.

Kyle is being held by authorities on an open charge pending the report of the grand jury investigation.

The killing of Jack Sligh here Sunday, brought queries as to how and when other murders took place in the city or county. It was reported the last one to take place in Greencastle was when Al Williams shot and killed William Mineer in south Greencastle several years ago.

Another occurred at Cloverdale when a Walker youth was shot and killed on an early Sunday morning, similar to this one.

It has been a good many years since any murder took place in the city or county, but several famous murder cases have been in court as a result of trouble in the community.

Exclusive features make it more flexible than any previous transmission. A specially designed throttle kickdown permits a particularly fast getaway.

RESINOL OINTMENT and SOAP

—NEW LINCOLN
coin engine for 1955. This has resulted in better performance and more rapid acceleration at the low and medium engine speeds. This new advantage was gained by increasing the horsepower rating to 225 and the torque to 332 pound feet at 2500 rpm's.

Another first in its field for Lincoln is a newly developed 18 millimeter conical seat spark plug—the first major advance in spark plugs in a generation. This new plug has a wider heat range and, with a larger air gap between the insulator and the outside shell of the plug, reduces the possibility of spark plug fouling. The conical seat design eliminates the gasket, thus insuring against compression leakage.

New tubeless tires are standard equipment and provide insurance against blowouts and punctures. A new tread design gives greater traction and virtually ends tire squeal.

Luxurious new interiors have been created by Lincoln stylists in keeping with the modern design of the car. Good taste is in evidence throughout the all new two-tone upholstery combinations featuring horseshoe shaped seaters finished with moose skin stitching. Modern nylon fabrics and leather are used effectively.

About 15,000 people die every year in India of snake bites. Ten to 20 die annually in the United States.

COLLECTOR MISSING

FT. WAYNE, Nov. 22.—Police sought clues today to the whereabouts of Charles G. Dixon, 34, Indianapolis, a collector for a clothing firm who vanished last Wednesday on one of his weekly trips to Ft. Wayne.

Dixon's car was found parked near the Van Orman hotel, and his overnight bag remained untouched in his hotel room until his wife, Mayme, returned it and the car to Indianapolis Sunday.

Mrs. Dixon and Dixon's employer, William Fitzsimmons, said his Ft. Wayne trips had worried him for two months because he said a man followed him, apparently intending to rob him. It was believed Dixon was carrying about $600 when last seen.

URGES CENSURE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Sen. Norris Cotton, R-NH, warned the Senate today that it will be "most unfortunate" if the McCarthy censure dispute is "filibustered or stalled or ducked" until the next session of congress.

"The issue is splitting the country and splitting the party and doing more harm than good," he said in an interview. "An exceedingly grave moral issue has been raised. It's got to be met."

If the issue is put off until next session, he said, the people will think "the senate hasn't got guts enough to meet an exceedingly grave issue affecting its honor and prestige."

SHEPPARD TRIAL

CLEVELAND, Nov. 22.—(UP)—The state planned to supply its murder motive in the Sheppard trial today with testimony that "other women" in the life of Dr.

Samuel H. Sheppard led him to consider divorce.

Dr. Lester T. Hoversten, one-time close friend of the Bay Village osteopath-surgeon and "mystery guest" in the Sheppard home until a few hours before the bludgeoning slaying of Marilyn Sheppard, was scheduled to tell Dr. Sam's infatuation with pert Susan Hayes, 24, and at least one other woman.

Dr. Hoversten, 42, a former schoolmate of Dr. Sam, was expected to testify after the defense finishes cross examination of homicide Detective Robert Schottke. The detective was the 10th state witness in its attempt to send the 30-year-old Dr. Sheppard to the electric chair.

The state accuses the handsome brain surgeon of killing his wife after quarreling with her about his attentions to other women. Dr. Hoversten has said he saw no quarreling between the Sheppards during his three-day visit just before the murder but is prepared to testify that Dr. Sam twice consulted him about getting a divorce.

Ella Rodenbeck Rites Tuesday

Mrs. Ella Rodenbeck, age 88, passed away at the home of her daughter in Cloverdale at 11:30 a. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Rodenbeck was born June 2, 1866 in Monroe county, the daughter of James and Jane Figg Shelburn. She was married in 1888 to Ransom Rodenbeck, who preceded her in death in 1925. She was a member of the Spencer Baptist church.

Survivors are: three daughters, Mrs. Dot Herbert, and Mrs. Ruth Vandiver both of Cloverdale, and Mrs. Pauline Smith, Clinton, one son, J. E. Rodenbeck, Spencer, eight grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. from the Whitaker Funeral Home. Rev. W. T. Fleming will conduct the service. Interment will be in Riverside cemetery at Spencer. Friends may call at the Funeral Home in Cloverdale.

UNION SERVICE

A Union Thanksgiving Service, sponsored by the Brick Chapel, Union Chapel and Bainbridge Methodist churches, will be held in the Bainbridge Methodist church at 9 a. m., on Thanksgiving morning. This early service will enable all to come and give thanks to God before rushing off to our family gatherings.

Rev. Donald Orr, pastor of the Brick Chapel church, will be preaching, his sermon topic being, "Wild Grapes for God." A Youth Choir composed of Methodist Youth Fellowship members from the three churches, will provide special music during the service.

In a Southern Association baseball game with Knoxville on Aug. 27, 1940, the first 13 Memphis batters reached first base safely.

IN MEMORY

In memory of our dear wife and mother, Mary Morris, who passed away five years today, November 22, 1949.

The memory of someone dear, Is like a thing of gold. It never dulls or tarnishes. Or grows the least bit old. The memory of someone dear, However long apart.

Is like a soothing melody That lingers in our hearts. It is the perfect picture Of a rainbow in the sky. It is the portrait of a past That cannot ever die.

Sadly missed by Wallace Morris and family.

LOOKING... AT LIFE

By Erich Brandeis

Among all the pomp and circumstance imaginable, Columbia University, on the occasion of its 200th anniversary, bestowed honorary doctorates upon the queen Mother of England, Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States, Adlai E. Stevenson, who was at the end of a hot political campaign, and other dignitaries from all corners of the world.

There was music. There were parades, or "processions," as they are called in academic circles. There was a great display of clothes, of jewelry, of millinery and of all the material signs of success and achievement.

It was enough to turn anybody's head, particularly the heads of many of the VIP's who were invited or who were getting the degrees.

But in this august assemblage, the orator of the day, John Bartlet Brebner, professor of history at Columbia, had chosen for his subject "HUMILITY."

To the casual onlooker humility was the last thing one would have expected from those who were basking in the sunlight of fame and who, by generally accepted standards, had every reason to be anything but humble.

Yet, Dr. Brebner admonished his hearers that "through humility we might expect to regain the salutary sense of the absurdity of Man, laugh a little more at ourselves and be the better prepared to be laughed at."

The attitude of the humble person, he said, is to admit that he might be wrong—and that this attitude holds good not only in respect to honorary doctors of letters or laws, such as we saw at Columbia the other day, but to all of us.

It is a peculiar fact that, the more a man amounts to, the more humble he seems to be.

I have interviewed many, many so-called important people. Yet, I have found more false pride, more putting on of airs, more imaginary importance among perfectly insignificant men and women than among the leaders in their chosen professions.

It is difficult to explain. Perhaps it is because it takes so much hard work, so many disappointments and so much energy to get to the top, that by the time one DOES get there, one realizes how little, how weak, how insignificant the human being really is.

"I could be wrong"—almost every great scientist, every really big doctor, every noted lawyer will admit that.

It is only the little pipsqueak who is always right, who simply cannot bear to be wrong. Tell him that he is wrong and his pride is deeply hurt. Disagree with him and he will give you a violent argument.

Not because he thinks that he is RIGHT, but because he knows that you may have caught him unawares at his ignorance.

Pride, conceit, know-it-allness are particularly prevalent among the young who have not yet learned the science of ignorance.

There is, however, nothing new about that. Wasn't it St. Peter who said: "Likewise ye younger, submit yourself unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility?"

You might notice that Peter admonished not only the young, but the elders likewise to be humble.

SHEPPARD STATEMENT READ TO JURY

CLEVELAND DETECTIVE Robert Schottke holds up a nine-page statement signed by Dr. Samuel Sheppard six days after his wife, Marilyn, was beaten to death. In the statement, Sheppard said that his wife was "quite jealous" of him and that she had at least "three potential lovers" whose names were given to the police "but she spurned them."

STONE AGE FIRE

JOHANNESBURG — (UP) — Evidence that Stone Age men knew and used fire has just been provided by the discovery, in the Makapan cave in the northeast Transvaal, of Stone Age fireplaces. The archaeologist who unearthed the cave, however, pointed out that this is the second discovery of its kind, for the also provided evidence that Stone Age Man used fire. The new find, nevertheless, is valuable confirmatory evidence.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our mother, Clara B. Mathews, who passed away one year ago today, Nov. 22, 1953.

She always loved to watch for us, Anxious if we were late. In winter by the window, In summer by the gate. Her thoughts were all so full of us, She never could forget And so we think that where she is She must be waiting yet. Waiting till we come home to her.

Anxious if we are late, Watching from heaven's window. Leaning from heaven's gate. Sadly missed by daughters, Mrs. Tressie Michael and family, Mrs. Vesta Mitchell and family. 22-p.

TOO FAR TO GO

DOVER, N. H. — (UP) — Paul L. Benoit of Concord was fined 10 in municipal court here on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license. The place to obtain a license is in the State House Annex, just across the street from the State House where Benoit is employed.

ABOUT TIME

PHOENIX MILLS, N. Y. — (UP) — Otsego county is looking forward to having a new county home—for the first time since 1826. Plans are in the works for a $1,000,000 structure to replace the six ancient existing buildings.

CRISIS!

EAST LYME, Conn. — (UP) — While 85-mile-an-hour hurricane winds ravaged this shore town, crushing cottages, toppling huge trees and battering homes, Selectman Clinton F. MacKinnon received an "urgent" telephone call from a woman. She complained that a sapling fell onto her bird bath.

HIT HARD

MILWAUKEE — (UP) — Marquette University's football

coach, Frosty Ferzacca, attests to this story. A freshman football player sat at length in front of his locker after a rough workout. An aide inquired about his troubles. "They hit me so hard out there I've forgotten my combination," the player said.

BUS STRIKE IS ENDED

HAMMOND, November 22 — City buses were rolling in the Hammond area again today for the first time in three weeks following ratification of a strike ending agreement by AFL bus drivers and mechanics.

The union workers, who walked off their jobs Nov. 1, voted 192 to 10 late Saturday to accept the new one year pact with the Shore Line Co.

NEW LINCOLN FOR 1955

See and drive these new beauties!

New Turbo-Drive — most far-reaching advance in no-shift driving in 14 years.

New high-torque, high-output V-8 engine — for matchless performance in every range.

We've just seen the new Lincoln for 1955! All of us have spent the last few hours just looking — and once in a while running a hand, gently, along what seem like the longest, sleekest fenders ever.

This car, in our opinion, is more than beautiful. It is everything a fine car should be — but so seldom is!

Now — come in and see for yourself. The new Lincoln styling — the new colors and fabrics — merit a long look.

And then you must — as we have — drive a new 1955 Lincoln or Lincoln Capri. Because beneath this beauty is new performance words cannot describe.

You must experience Lincoln's new Turbo-Drive to realize how far ahead it leads. Driving. It gives you, for the first time in any car, ultra smoothness and instant acceleration — with neither left out for the sake of the other.

And the new Lincoln V-8 engine! You've got to feel its silky power in action to believe it. You must feel its incredible response in every driving range from start to superhighway speeds.

AND A NOTE OF URGENCY: our present shipment of new Lincolns may not be with us long. Early orders mean early deliveries.

We're looking forward to showing you this 1955 Lincoln in action.

NEW DEVICE MEASURES

FAT, LEAN THICKNESS
 An electric device for measuring the thickness of fat and lean in live meat animals and in carcasses has been reported today by Purdue University scientists. This new weapon in the arsenal of agricultural science has been designed to increase the accuracy of live animal grading and speed up the breeding of meat-type hogs.

"It is a new tool that will mean as much in the field of animal husbandry as the Babcock test did to the dairyman," predicts Prof. Claude Harper, head of Purdue's animal husbandry department.

Swine breeders and packers who viewed the instrument while it was in the experimental stage have been similarly enthusiastic about its future importance to the industry.

Their instrument measures the differences in electrical properties of fat and muscular tissues and records the thickness of each," they report. It works because a delicate electrode is inserted beneath the skin of the animal. At the moment this electrode contacts muscle, an electrical meter shows increase in electrical conductivity.

More than 3000 such measurements have been made on live animals at Purdue during the course of the research. None of the live animals or carcasses has been harmed by the instrument, which has proved so simple to use that only a short training period will be needed.

Packers and breeders regard this research development as important because the real value of a meat animal depends on its yield of the expensive lean cuts. In hogs, this would mean such cuts as the ham, loin, picnic, and bacon.

Station W G R E

"Rural Round-up" at 5:30 this evening over Radio Station WGRE will present Bainbridge High School students Betty Jo Bridges and Catherine Caywood. These two girls were winners in the WGRE Rural Round-up Announcing Contest which closed Saturday. The series is being produced with the cooperation of Kenneth Harris, Putnam County Farm Agent.

"BBC World Theater" at 8 will present the "Agamemnon" of the Greek dramatist, Aeschylus. The play will be based on a translation by Raymond Raikes.

Nearly 15,000,000 tons of steel was used by the auto industry in 1953.

The longest straight stretch of railroad track in the United States is 78.86 miles between Wilmington and Hamlet, N. C. The Pentagon has 7,600 windows.

BUCKS TAKE GAME AND ROSE BOWL BID, 21-7

Before a sell-out crowd of 82,600 at Columbus, Dan Cline, Michigan halfback eludes Ohio State's Hopalong Cassidy to score the Wolverines lone tally. Cassidy evened matters in the fourth period when he scampered 53 yards to set up a 47-yard Leggett to Brubaker touchdown pass that prefaced another quick Buckeye score, making it 21-7 and giving Ohio State its first undefeated season since 1944, and a surething bid to the Rose Bowl at Pasadena.

TOP-RATED UCLA DOWNS SPARTANS, 34-0

With the Pacific Coast Conference championship at stake, Southern California's (36) leaves a string of tacklers and blockers in his wake in the early stages of the USC-UCLA duel at Los Angeles. The UCLA's, top-ranked in the nation, staged a whopping fourth period, adding 27 points to their half-time 7-0 score to clinch the Pacific Coast title before 102,600, although they are ineligible for Rose Bowl competition.

ed at each other during the week-end instead of at animals.

James Felty, 19, Mount Vernon, was shot by a companion, Wilbur Thompson, while peering into a drain pipe where a wounded rabbit sought refuge. Thompson stuck his shotgun in the other end of the pipe and fired, the pellets striking Felty in the face and shoulder. He may lose the sight of his left eye.

Larry Raymer, 11, Brownsburg and his grandfather, Dewey Grafe were wounded by a shotgun blast as they hunted near Clay City. Raymer shot in the right eye, was reported in satisfactory condition in Indianapolis Riley hospital. Grafe was hospitalized in Brazil.

Det. Sgt. Elmer Hueber, 49, of the Indianapolis police department, member of a hunting expedition near Plainfield, was wounded in the shoulder when a shotgun safety lock tripped accidentally.

HERBERT HOOVER VISITING IN WESTER GERMANY

BONN, Germany, Nov. 22—Herbert Hoover returned today to visit West Germany after the one started developing into a land of plenty.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and U. S. High Commissioner James B. Conant announced they would greet Mr. Hoover at Wahn airport when the former American president arrives today.

Adenauer invited Mr. Hoover to visit West Germany again several months ago in appreciation of his work in feeding hungry Germans immediately after the war.

Mr. Hoover will confer at noon Tuesday with Adenauer and then lunch with Theodor Heuss, president of the Federal Republic. He will be Adenauer's guest of honor Tuesday night at a big state dinner to be attended by diplomats and German officials.

But when you bid in a new suit, he must act again, assuming fourth hand passes. For this reason a free bid in a new suit promises more strength than a raise of partner's suit.

When you make a free bid in a new suit at the one level, you should have as good as an average hand in high cards if your suit is a four-carder. With a five-card or longer suit, slightly less high card strength will do.

MINIMUM BID

Mr. Abel's hand in today's deal was just about a minimum for a free bid of one spade. One thing that made him feel comfortable about bidding was his holding of three to the 10 spot in his partner's suit.

He could easily stand a rebid of two clubs and when he heard that call from Mrs. Keen he promptly passed.

Mrs. Keen might have done better to bid one no trump on the second round, although two clubs wasn't bad contract. Her failure to make the bid was due principally to the fine defense put up by Mr. Masters and Mr. Champion.

The opening lead was a club and Mr. Champion ducked an excellent play designed to leave a club in his partner's hand to lead at his next opportunity.

WINS WITH JACK

Mrs. Keen won with the jack. She led a spade and Mr. Masters went in with the ace. He returned his last club. Mr. Champion took the ace of clubs and returned another club. Mr. Masters dropping the seven of hearts.

After winning the third club on the board with the 10, Mrs. Keen led a diamond and finessed the queen. Mr. Masters won with the king and returned his last spade. Mrs. Keen considered finessing dummy's jack but finally went up with the king. She led back a spade and ruffed, hoping the suit would break 3-3. But it was no good. She still had to lose two heart tricks and a diamond for down one.

SEEK MAN'S IDENTITY

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 22.—(UP)—State Police technicians today sought to learn the identity of a man whose skeleton was found by two hunters south of Indianapolis.

It was the third such discovery, turned over to State Police for investigation in a week.

Police said the latest skeleton was found on the Nellie Ballard farm in southern Marion county late Saturday. A rusty shotgun was found near the body, and authorities speculated the man may have been a suicide victim.
